

Parents Newsletter

December 2007

Dear everyone,

On this beautiful, crisp winter day I write to you...

Staff News

We welcome back Clare from maternity leave in January.

We say goodbye to Eva. Eva is moving on to very exciting pastures. Eva is moving to Saudi Arabia. How wonderful, we are all so envious.

This does mean we have to take this opportunity to reorganise our staff teams. They will be as follows -

La Camera dei Bambini

Day staff -

Liz, Angela (Bl) and Angela (Br) / Clare (job share)

Evening staff -

Maureen, Jenna and Saira will be returning from maternity leave.

Salle de Jeux

Maureen / Susan (job share), Susan and June

Sala Infantil

Day staff

Jane, Cheryl, Lian, Julie and Fiona

Evening staff

Margaret, Rosie and Michelle

You can see from this structure that there are minor changes in all rooms. We have offered temporary placements to three afternoon staff, Maureen, Rosie and Michelle. So it proves to be an exciting New Year.

Christmas Fair

Thank you so very much for coming out on such a cold day to support us. We raised a whopping £550 with more still coming in. Thank you so much, your support means everything to us.

Nativity Books

Please remember Nativity Books are on sale to support everyone in singing beautifully on the day.

Standard Life Award

We received a standard life award in the 'Global Citizens' category.

Success in the City

Our children feature in this magazine this month. There are full page photographs of Charlotte and Ilona. We are approaching the Quality Improvement Team with a request for more copies.

Thank you

Thank you Ana for your beautiful sewing. The pinnies are much improved.

Lost Property

Please remember the lost property basket will be emptied soon. Have a little check before it is recycled.

Tissues

Could you please hand in a small box of tissues? The tissues we receive from our stores are not so soft for small noses. Thank you for your assistance in this.

Well all that is left to say is have a wonderful time over the festive period. For those of you holidaying have a lovely time.

Warm kind wishes from all of us.
